

CHANGES, CHANGES...

We (John and Julia Hoskins, who also own The Old Bridge at Huntingdon) took back the lease of The Three Horseshoes 18 months ago, in August 2016.

We have been through a big programme of refurbishment and we now have a lovely environment, an enthusiastic team and a menu of fresh, seasonal, flavourful dishes.

However, on January 22nd we are passing on the lease to 'CambsCuisine' (who run 8 other local restaurants including The Cock at Hemingford Grey and the Cambridge Chop Houses). I am sure they can take the business on and make it even more successful.

Please do come and see us again before January 22nd and please support the new owners after that!
